The alfalfa mill is about completed and will be ready for the alfalfa in a short time now. We will give a full account of the workings of the same as soon as they are in operation.

Tuesday a business change was made in Ellinwood, whereby the John Thul & Co. bought the meat market business of L. & E. Petz. The new firm took charge of the market at once and Pete Smith has charge of same.

There was a family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Daniel last Sunday. All their children were present, and spent an enjoyable day. Those present were Adolph Daniel and family of Sylvia, Mrs. Mary Keck and son of Des Moines, Mrs. Werner Jochems of Offerle, Jake Daniel and wife of Hollywood, Misses Francis, Kate, Alvina, and Lucy and John Daniel of Ellinwood.

Ed Hagen was up from St. John the first of the week. Ed says he is settled there now and likes his new home fine. We are sorry to lose Mr. Hagen from this community, but wish him and his family all the good luck in the world.

Work was commenced yesterday morning on the new garage of the Ellinwood Lumber Co. It will be built of cement blocks and will be 50x120 feet with a plate glass front and when completed it will be one of the finest in the country.

Will Klein was removed from the Heim home Saturday afternoon and was taken to the home of his father-in-law, Chas. Blockley. His condition is improving somewhat but it is very slowly. At times now he will recognize everyone but then his mind will leave again. His many friends here hope that he will now recover more rapidly.

Geo. M. Heim was again confined to his bed Monday. His right leg was operated on, as it had not healed well since his accident. At this writing he is able to be up and around again.

A fire alarm was turned in at three o'clock Sunday morning from the round house. The Fire Department was soon there and discovered that a box car used as a sand house was burning from underneath. It was setting on the ground which made it hard to put the fire out but holes were dug around it and the sills were flooded but the fire did not go out for several hours. Early Sunday morning while S.

V. Johnson, hostler helper, was riding the pilot of an engine that was being put in the house his foot was caught by some wood that was picked up along the track and was badly mashed. He was taken to the local hospital for treatment. It may be necessary to amputate the foot.

Jacques Turner, an employee of the car department was badly mashed through the hips and stomach Monday afternoon while repairing a draw bar. A car was shoved against him, pinning him between the bumpers. He was taken to the hospital for treatment where it was found that he had suffered severe injuries, the extent of which cannot be told for several days.

John Alexander and G. J. Galloway, both employees of the round house, were badly scalded by hot water and steam from the knees down. Galloway fell in a hole that was washed out by steam and water. In trying to pull him out Alexander fell in also and received worse scalds than the man he tried to rescue. Both are being treated in the hospital.

A pleasing, good, high grade truly flavored, amber colored cup of coffee can be had—and without the real Coffee danger, or damage to health—by simply using Dr. Shoop's new substitute called "Health Coffee." Pure, wholesome, toasted cereals, malt, oats, etc., make Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, both healthful and satisfying. No 20 to 30 minutes tedious boiling. "Made in a minute," says Dr. Shoop. If served as coffee, it's taste will even trial an expert. Test it and see. A. B. Hower.

Crotchets at the Breakfast Table
Many people feel very cross and touchy in the morning before they get up steam. They don't like to be talked to or meddled with. Their patience is often at its lowest ebb then, and they are more unstable and more likely to explode than at any other time during the day.

The breakfast table seems to be the place for the exhibition of about all the disagreeable traits and little, mean qualities of many families. The children are often touchy, rude and quarrelsome, the mother fretful and fussy, and the father frequently makes the assembling at breakfast an occasion to give harsh orders, to tell unpleasant truths, and to make disagreeable remarks generally.

I have been in homes where the children seemed fairly to dread to go to the breakfast table because the father was so cross, crabbed, and the mother so fractious and peevish.

It is a habit in many homes for the members of the family to talk over all of their troubles and worries, and to express their anxieties and fears in regard to the day at the morning meal. I have sat at breakfast tables, where no one seemed to feel under the slightest obligation to contribute to the pleasure of the occasion. All the members of the family sat down at the table in careless, even slovenly, dress, especially if they happened to be in a hurry. The father would bury himself in a paper, the mother would scold and nag, and everybody seemed to feel at liberty to be as cross and crabbed and disagreeable as he liked.

It ought to be a principle in every home to keep all unpleasant things away from the table, especially at breakfast, and to make the meal hours the happiest occasions of the day. The children should be reared with the idea that they are to appear at their very best at the table; that they must never bring a sour, gloomy face to it; that each gathering round the family board is an occasion for good cheer; that no note of discord will be tolerated at these meetings.—Success.

Tickling or dry Coughs will quickly loosen when using Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. And it is so thoroughly harmless, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers to use nothing else, even for very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung healing mountainous shrub, give the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. It calms the cough, and heals the sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Demand Dr. Shoop's. Accept no other. Sold by Holmes, Druggist

Mrs. Brownell of McCracken, visited friends here several days this week.

The heavy horse department of the American Royal, to be held at the Kansas City stock yards in October, has already received entries from some of the largest breeders and exporters of the big and graceful animals. McLaughlin Bros. of Kansas City, J. C. Robison of Towanda, Kas., George Groenmiller & Son of Pomona, Kas. and Chas. Holland of Springfield, Mo., are among those who will have Percheron herds or individuals at the Royal. It looks like the biggest Percheron show of the year. McLaughlin Bros. have also entered French coach horses, and Mr. Holland will give exhibitions during the horse shows of German Coach horses, since there are no classes at the Royal this year for the Germans. The draft horse department already has more than 80 entries, with several counties to hear from.
